TALK WITH MR. VREELAND. It is probable that in the future delays will not be be learned. No telltale "peeps" were heard, so frequent on the Broadway cable road as they have been since the system was put in operation a short time ago. The adxillary cable was set in motion yesterday and the cars were hauled by it. The work of repairing the first cable was begun as soon as the auxiliary cable was started. If anything should happen to one cable now the other will be set in motion

While the cable road on Broadway was in course of construction much was said in its behalf, and all interested in it predicted that it would be an unquali-But so many delays and mishaps fied success. Nearly all the delays resulted from the breaking of strands in the cable. Every time any of the strands broke there was a delay until the cable could be repaired. Had the auxiliary cable been in readiness the delays would have been avoided. ow that the auxiliary cable is in working order, the officials say that delays will no longer be recorded.

The new machinery which was put to work yes terday is the duplicate set. In every respect it is same as that which has been in use. It consists of a new engine, new weights and their appendages and a new cable. It has been put together with much less haste than the first set, and with much more one of its strands are likely to break. While the duplicate set is in use the other will be thoroughly Then, should anything go wrong with the auxiliary cable, nothing more will have to be done than to set the old cable in motion. The new engine is situated in the southern part of the power-hous The old engine is in the northern part of the building. Both the new and the old cables lie in the same conduit. When one is in motion the other lies slack. It will be possible to change from one set to the other in a few minutes.

Herbert H. Vreeland, the president of the Metro-politan Traction Company, was delighted yesterday cause the auxiliary cable had been set in motion. To the newspaper men who saw him he said:

However, we have had very bad lock, but I think it has come to an end. Other cable lines, such as that on Ome-honfred-and-twenty-fitth-st., and those of other cities, have had smallar misfortunes when they first began running, as the records show, but they ran on less conspicuous streets. We have had longer blocks on our other horse-car lines at various times, and the public scarcely noticed it. When here is a block on Breadway it causes such serious in-onyentence that the whole town knows about it almost Our duplicate downtown plant is now running, and the

For many weeks, ever since the first block in the beginning of July, we have been earrying on incessant experiments with the reserve machinery, especially at night, but not till now could we be entirely satisfied. With such powerful and complicated pieces of machinery there is nothing to be done but to stand by and hope that everything may come It has been asserted that all these vexatious mishaps

Archibald F. Wyckoff, a prosperous farmer in the Flatlands Neck Road in the town of Flatlands, was arrested yesterday while superintending his men upon a warrant secured by Miss Magdalena Lott, charging him with failure to redeem his promise to marry her. Miss Lott is only eighteen years old, and her father. Samuel Lott, is her guardian in a suit against Mr. Wyckoff to recover $20,000 as damages for breach of promise of marriage. SHALL WE HAVE FREE COINAGE ?

THE TRIBUNE has published a remarkable pamphlet, 76 large pages, in which the Free Coinage question, so puzzling to the public mind, is argued out, formally, by that ardent advocate of Free Coinage on the old basis of 16 to 1, William M. Horr, ex-Congressman from Michigan, a sturdy champion of the Republican doctrine that metallic dollars should contain as much metal as they are nominally

Each writer contributes six clearly written, pointed, and able papers to the discussion.
